MESSAGE FROM THE DESIGNER

Greetings!

I'm Martin, the designer behind the design you are most likely going to build right now. I suppose this will be a new experience to you, but don't be nervous. To me, this project was also a first. We will go through it together. Just gently open the bags of parts and take care not to make a mess. I want to take you on a journey back in time, and the road we are going to take is made of 2,000 bricks, so it’s only going to work if we put them together in the right order.

Ready? Then let us travel to the middle ages, to a time when the lands were more dangerous and the people had much less than today. I want to show you how they lived back then and how they were able to protect the things they did have from the very dangers the lands of old held.

Now, the sad truth is, the dangers didn't come from wild beasts or mythical monsters as the stories might make you believe. The dangers came from people all the same. Since they are quite a smart bunch, one needed to build something well-thought-out to defend everything one cared about.

This is the purpose of a castle, and I made Löwenstein to reflect exactly that. Please enjoy, and I hope you can learn something new during this journey.

Farewell.

Martin Geistefeldt
Raziel_Regulus

I realized that I wanted to design stuff other people might like by playing with LEGO®. I build mostly vehicles/architecture, but it's The Lord of the Rings and the Halo franchise that floats my LEGO boat.

LÖWENSTEIN CASTLE

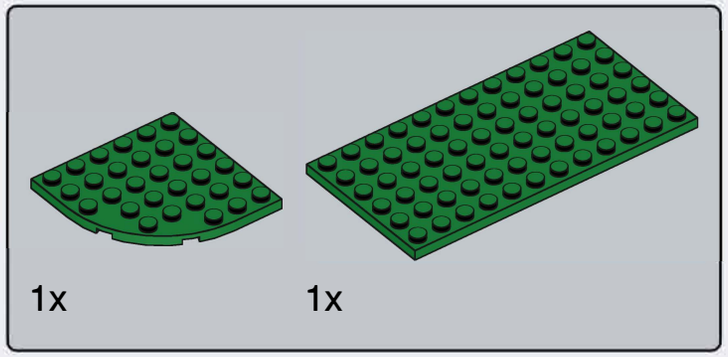

Every castle is home to someone, and in this Löwenstein Castle lives a knight, his family, and his animals. The animals have their own housing that can be found right behind the outermost of the two main gatehouses – the outer bailey. The inner bailey has a roofed defensive corridor to offer protection from outside threats with an overhanging toilette bay, or “thunderbox.” Cross the drawbridge to get to the Great Hall and join the family for festivities after keeping watch over the castle.

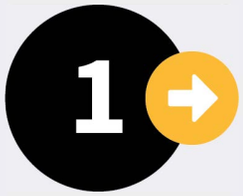

End the day with hiking up the centrepiece and highest point of the complex, the donjon or keep, to absorb panoramic views of the entire Löwenstein Castle.

To provide a better building experience, the parts in this set are divided into stages. Stage numbers are marked on each bag (e.g. 1A, 1B, etc) and at the appropriate place in the instructions. All bags beginning with the numeral one should be opened first. After the first stage is built, open bags from the second stage and so on.
